I listen to Klove everyday of the week. It is a great source of inspiration and it is all about Christ. As a teacher in the school system here, I know we have a number of students who also listen to Klove for this same reason, and the effect that it has on these young people is tremendous. Klove is an excellent way for the people of this community to become closer to the Lord. Thankyou.